

Hiking: 18.4 miles

The trails explore a variety of habitats within the park including forest, field, and wetlands. Most trails are accessible from the West Launch parking area. Use extreme caution when hiking in hunting areas during hunting seasons.

Blue Trail: 3.5 miles, blue blazes, more difficult hiking
Mostly wooded, this wide trail is great for horseback riding. It winds through wooded areas of the park where historic ruins still exist and can be explored. It also follows along the East Branch of the Brandywine Creek.

Green Trail: 1 mile, green blazes, more difficult hiking
A great trail for horseback riding, this trail connects to Blue Trail to make for a longer ride.

Lime Loop: 1.83 miles, more difficult hiking
Great for horseback riding or mountain biking, this trail branches off Blue Trail in the northwestern part of the park.

Park Road Trail: 0.5 mile, easiest hiking
Beginning at the boat rental concession, this trail continues to the end of the warm season grass fields. At the park boundary, Upper Uwchlan Township's trail follows alongside Park Road for 0.8 mile to Hickory Park. From there, the trail continues into the village of Eagle where you can get a bite to eat, relax, and enjoy the small businesses the village has to offer. It is approximately 1.5 miles from Marsh Creek State Park's boundary to the intersection of Park Road and the Pottstown Pike in Eagle.

Red Trail: 1.5 miles, red blazes, more difficult hiking
One of two trails located on the east side of the park, this trail can be accessed from any parking lot on the east side. Running along the lake and through the woods, it is a great trail to take when picnicking in the park's day use areas.

White Trail: 4 miles, white blazes, easiest hiking
This trail starts on Little Conestoga Road, but can be more easily accessed at the West Launch parking area. This hike offers lakeside views as well as a hike through the woods and a rolling ramble through agricultural fields and horse barn area. It is a great choice for hikers looking to experience the park's various habitats.

Yellow Trail: 6.07 miles, yellow blazes, most difficult hiking
This trail begins at the Dorlan Mill Road parking area and includes the mountain biking loop trails south and east of the dam. It challenges park visitors while offering some of the best hiking in the park.
