Range Rules

1. A Range Master needs to be appointed when there are 3 or more individuals using the range.
2. Spent brass, targets, or other forms of litter on the range premises must be deposited in trash containers provided at the range or removed and lawfully disposed of.
3. All firearms must be unloaded except while in the act of shooting at a designated shooting station and in keeping with instructions provided by the active Range Master (when multiple shooters are present).
4. No more than three live rounds in a magazine at the rifle range
5. No more than six live rounds in a magazine or revolver at the handgun range
6. No discharging of a firearm on the range other than from an active shooting station at a paper target affixed to a permanent target frame provided in front of the bullet backstop.
7. Only one person and one un-cased weapon at a time at each available shooting station.
8. If all shooting stations are filled, notify the active Range Master at the range you are waiting to shoot at that there is a waiting line for shooting stations, and then remain at the staging area pavilion with weapons cased until a shooting station becomes available.
9. No smoking on the target range or at the staging pavilion.
10. No more than one user under the age of 16 per one adult's supervision.

The Following are Prohibited

1. Using or attempting to use the target range when it is closed.
2. Possessing ammunition or weapons not authorized for range use in the staging area or on the range (semi –automatic long-guns during heavy use period, automatic weapons, high velocity .50 caliber or larger weapons, or armor piercing, incendiary, explosive, tracer, or multiple particle (birdshot) munitions.)
3. Possession of alcoholic beverages, drugs, or being intoxicated or under the influence of any intoxicating substance while present on the target range, target range staging area, or parking lot.
4. Using or attempting to use the target range without a valid range permit.
5. Failure to comply with Range Master's instructions or otherwise endangering yourself or others through failure to follow range safety and etiquette procedures.
6. Aggressive, belligerent, disorderly, or violent behaviors directed towards other range users or range infrastructure.
